Preaching, good food, and wonderful fellowship: Lent at the Advent. For well over a century, we have come together – especially with those who work downtown – to hear again and again the promise of “Christ and him crucified.” It is the word that does not itself tire with repetition, but proves a Comfortable Word for all who are weary and heavy laden.

We hope to see you here often. Come with friends, co-workers, and colleagues to hear the sermons and enjoy the lunches ... and desserts! Taste and see for yourself how hundreds of friendships have developed and deepened around these tables over the years.

Welcome.
